NCCHP Museum News for August 2022

The NCCHP Museum at the Drum Factory in Granville is please to announce that they are open for tours on the 2nd and 4th Sundays of the month from noon – 3:00PM. Join us for an informative guided visit to the local factory that started as a toy manufacturer that went on to produce drums for the Civil War, two US Presidents and many well-known modern drummers as well. So cool!

The museum has also scheduled more Living History programs for 2022. The August 17th performance at 6:30PM features musician Jeff Snow presenting the “Softer Side of Celtic”. The program combines music, stories and a wee bit of history from Scotland, Ireland and England that promises to keep the audience on the edge of their seats. Light refreshments will be served after the performance.

Museum tours are $5 for adults and $3 for children under 12. Living History programs are free to museum members and free will donations from others of $5 - $10 are appreciated to help defray appearance fees. The Living History programs are sponsored in part by a grant from the Granville Cultural Council.

Please plan to visit 42 Water Street soon. It's worth the trip! www.ncchp.org ncchp.org@gmail.com

PAMELA DAWN WOOD

Pam, age 75, passed away at her home in Granville, MA on Wednesday, July 6, 2022.

Pamela was born on January 1, 1947, in Springfield, MA to Flynn Wood and Stefania (Glaze) Wood.

Pamela attended Westfield High School class of 1965 and later completed courses at Holyoke Community College.

Pamela enjoyed gardening and spending time in nature. Over the years her spare time was spent restoring her historical home in historic Granville Center. Many will remember Pamela as the owner of tomorrow's antiques in Granville where she sold primitive country furniture she was so well known for making. Pamela took great pride in knowing the art she created was enjoyed around the world by those who purchased her items at her in home shoppe and was a must see stop at the yearly Columbus Day weekend harvest fair in Granville.

Pamela is predeceased by her parents Flynn and Stefania Wood.

She leaves her son Christopher J. Wood and his wife Marixa of Westfield, MA, her brother Glenn "Scooter" D. Wood of Port Orange FL, her 2 grandchildren Jacob Wood And Gabriella Wood, along with many other family members and friends.
