CONGRATS!

Amy Weber has been selected by her peers for inclusion in the Best Lawyers of America. Amy works in the field of elder law. Congratulations Amy from your Council on Aging friends in Granville!

Volunteers Needed!

The Granville Ambulance has provided excellent service through the years to many of us in Granville and now it needs YOUR help.

Have YOU ever used the ambulance service or has someone else among your friends and family used the service? If so, please consider becoming an EMT. While the work may be challenging, the satisfaction gained from helping your friends and neighbors more than compensates. We often speak proudly of our community's independence, of our hardworking no-nonsense friends and neighbors. We like to do for ourselves, to take care of our own. We do a good job doing that, but it requires us all to give a little of ourselves. We understand that you work, that you have kids, that you have school obligations, that you have hobbies and other interests. Life is busy for each one of us and it is true that we can't do it all. Yet, if we are to continue to provide our own services, unlike so many small communities surrounding us, we must commit of ourselves. Our volunteer commitment is necessary to continue the "Granville Way of Doing Things".

Please look at your situation and make a commitment to be an EMT. If you are interested you can stop by the firehouse on Tuesday nights at 6:30pm or call the Select board's office at 357-8585 ext. 0. The email address for town hall is K.Martin@townofgranville.org.

We thank you for your consideration.

Richard Woodger, Ted Sussmann, Jr. and David Ripley.

Remembering.....

the quiet, gentle, dignified lady we all knew as Helena. What a treasure Granville had all the many years her presence graced this pleasant village.

Helena Womboldt was born in Newton, MA into a family of many children, in the year 1904. She was graduated from Framingham State Teachers College at the age of 19. At that time she accepted a job offer at the West Granville Ore Hill School, teaching grades one thru nine. She arrived here "on the stage". That takes ones imagination back in time, doesn't it? She found room with board in the Charles Reeves home on Main Road. She carried her lunch each day as did all her pupils and she walked the long hill distance, in cold, sometimes snowy weather to the school house. I am sure without complaint. She was truly loved by all her students, many remembering her long after their school years finished.

Helena met Joseph Duris here. His family lived in an early colonial house on Beech Hill Road. They were married in 1930 in a beautiful wedding ceremony in the Newton home of her folks. Helena and Joe, at this time, purchased the house in West Granville known as the Harger house, former home of a Granville cobbler. She made this house into a warm and gracious home. She lived there until her death in 1992 at the age of 88.

Helena is still remembered for her warmth, her gentle smile and the vast knowledge she accumulated in regard to Granville's history and the wondrous genealogical treasures that make up this history. You could ask her any question about the town's founding fathers, be it Coe Robinson, Baldwin, Barlow or Spellman plus dozens of others and on the tip of her tongue was all you needed to know about any family who settled here before 1800.

We, all who knew her, consider ourselves fortunate to have been witness to an era that was graced by this lovely lady and we are all richer for it.

Block Dance

The rain date for the Granville Block Dance took place on August 9th. The Granville Cultural Council, and MA Cultural Council, granted the Recreation Committee $500.00 to help pay for The Knightsmen Band. Sharon Billings donated back a portion of her profits from her face painting, as did the Scoop. The Green Committee popped popcorn for the dancing crowd, Dave Pulaski photographed the event.

We would like to thank all the folks who came out to enjoy the music and spend time with friends and family, along with those who donated their time and money to make this annual block dance the fun evening it was. We hope to see you again next year.

Granville CULTURAL COUNCIL SEEKS FUNDING PROPOSALS

Proposals for community-oriented arts, humanities, and science programs due October 15

The Granville Cultural Council has set an October 15th postmark deadline for organizations, schools and individuals to apply for grants that support cultural activities in the community.

According to Council spokesperson, these grants can support a variety of artistic projects and activities in Granville including exhibits, festivals, field trips, short-term artist residencies or performances in schools, workshops and lectures.

The Granville Cultural Council is part of a network of 329 Local Cultural Councils serving all 351 cities and towns in the Commonwealth. The LCC Program is the largest grassroots cultural funding network in the nation, supporting thousands of community-based projects in the arts, sciences and humanities every year. The state legislature provides an annual appropriation to the Massachusetts Cultural Council, a state agency, which then allocates funds to each community.

This year, the Granville Cultural Council will distribute about $4300.00 in grants. Previously funded projects include: Watercolor Summer Workshop, Summer Reading Program, Christmas with Nova Cantori and NCCHP Living History.

For specific guidelines and complete information on the Granville Cultural Council, contact Fran at fgleason@comcast.net. Application forms and more information about the Local Cultural Council Program are available online at http://www.mass-culture.org/lcc\_public.aspx. Application forms are also available at Granville town hall.

October 11 – 13 is the 33rd annual Granville Harvest Fair weekend. The NCCHP museum is on the bus route and will be open all three days of the fair. Come watch scheduled demonstrations of wood veneering, steam-bending, wood burning, blacksmithing, pottery throwing, small engine displays and more. Visit the museum Gift Shop for toy drums, ice buckets and handcrafted items made by local artisans. Enjoy browsing and finding unique gifts at the indoor and outdoor vendor booths: AJ's Wooden Crafts featuring hand painted tables, shelves, bats and doll cradles; hand crafted jewelry by Joyce Banks; books by TJ Banks, a local author; Arnie Paye's wooden scroll saw clocks, plaques and ornaments; leg warmers and chaps by Tony & Susan Phillips; soy candles, beer nuts and more! Plenty of great food and drink options will be available on-site: The Crepes Teahouse will be making both sweet and savory crepes; The Westfield River Brewery will be back again this year with a selection of crafted beers; and new this year a food vendor serving kielbasa, brats and stuffed pretzels. Hourly tours of the museum will be available for $5.00 donations which includes a raffle ticket for the annual "Granville bucket"...a Noble & Cooley ice bucket filled with Granville maple syrup, Granville cheese, crackers, and a 2015 family membership to the NCCHP museum.

October 29th at 6:30PM the NCCHP museum will host the final Living History event of the 2014 season. The living history programs are free of charge and light refreshments are served. Donations are always appreciated.

The NCCHP museum at the Drum Shop is located at 42 Water Street in Granville and is open for tours on the 1st and 3rd Sundays of the month from 12:00 – 3:00. Be sure to take a tour and check out the newest rotating exhibit featuring the Danish colony that settled in Granville in the late 1800's. Come learn about Denmark and how, when, where and why so many Danes settled in Granville. Many old artifacts are on display including shipping trunks, wooden shoes, and household items as well as pictures and information about the early Danish families. There's a lot to see and explore about the daily lives and contributions of these families to Granville and the surrounding towns.

Tours for groups of ten or more are available weekdays by appointment (call 413-357-6321). Museum admission is free for NCCHP members; $5 for adults and $3 for children for non-members. ### STACKER ENGRAVED PAVER

Dorothy, Dot ("Ma") Stacker and her husband Max lived in a house on the southwest side of the current village green. This is the land donated to the town by the Woodger family. Together the Stackers operated a gas station and auto repair shop, which still stands, next to the general store. In later years, "Ma" Stacker ran the gas station business alone.

We would like to commemorate Dorothy and Max Stacker with an engraved paver on the village green walkway. The cost of a paver is $75.00

If you would like to contribute, checks can be made out to the Town of Granville and mailed to Karen Carpenter at 703 Main Road, Granville. In the memo field, please write "Stacker Paver."

Thank you,
Friends of Dorothy and Max Stacker

FICO SCORE CALCULATIONS CHANGE

Fair Isaac, the company that sells the FICO credit scores to mortgage companies, auto lenders, banks and credit card companies, has announced changes in their formula which could increase your credit score if;

You have settled debts with a collection agency.

You have unpaid medical bills

Your credit is weak because you're just starting out or you're a retiree who doesn't use much credit.

When your credit score is high, it could result in less interest paid when borrowing money for a home or car. If your score is too low, you may not be able to get a loan.

Anticipated changes:

If unpaid medical debt is the only unpaid debt on your credit report, your score could rise by about 25 points.

If your debt was sold to a collection agency and you paid it, your FICO score won't be lowered.

If you don't use much credit, Fair Isaac will use other information such as rent payments to increase the accuracy of your score.

The Consumer Financial Protection Bureau has stated medical debt isn't a strong indicator that other types of debt won't be paid.

Your mortgage rate may take longer to come down as most lenders follow Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac lending guidelines. Those guidelines advise lenders to use a very specific mortgage credit score rather than the latest version of the FICO score. Currently the average Fannie Mae borrower has a FICO score of 744, and the average Freddie Mac borrower has a score of 749.
